

BTEC Level 4 in Education and Training

Who is it for?

This is a teaching qualification which provides the skills and knowledge needed to improve preparation, planning and delivery of teaching sessions. The course is ideal for anyone providing teaching and training to adults and young people over the age of 16.

About the course

During the course there is a requirement to complete 30 hours of group/individual teaching.

Mandatory Units;

- Understanding Roles Responsibilities and Relationships in Education and Training
- Planning to Meet Needs of Learners in Education and Training
- Delivering Education and Training
- Assessing Learners in Education and Training
- Using Resources for Education and Training

One or more optional units are then chosen that are relevant to individual roles, and meet the credit requirement for example:

- Developing and using resources in a specialist area
- Inclusive Practice
- Teaching in a specialist area
- Working with individual learners

Delivered through 10 workshop sessions, plus 3 teaching observations, learners will complete a portfolio of evidence which will include written work, personal research and reflection
