

SUPPLY CHAIN OPERATOR

AURELIA TRAINING

Who is it for?

Supply Chain Operators are primarily responsible for managing the movement of goods for a variety of customers across all sectors, and as such their customer base will range from large global organisations to sole traders and private customers in local areas, depending on their organisation. They will work in one or more of a variety of subsectors, including: shipping, removals, import/export, freight, hazardous goods, and food. Work roles might include, Traffic or Transport Officer, and Removals Operative.

About the Course

The standards for Supply Chain Operator were developed by the trailblazer employer group, made up of around 50 different employers in this sector. The same group produced a list of learning outcomes which represent the higher order skills and knowledge that should be assessed at end point assessment stage. It is these learning outcomes which must be achieved in order for the apprentice to be deemed a competent Supply Chain Operator.

Essential core knowledge, skills and behaviours for Supply Chain Operators are required to be developed throughout, and demonstrated on completion of their apprenticeship.
