

Level 7 Diploma in Strategic Management & Leadership (QCF)

Who is it for?

This qualification is aimed at employees who undertake management and leadership responsibilities in a senior and strategic management role; in positions such as Director or Chief Executive. It is a work based qualification that allows learners to develop core management and leadership skills and competencies essential for the workplace. The learner will be asked to provide evidence of their role such as interview records, minutes of meetings, reports and other correspondence.

The award is a nationally recognised qualification validated by Pearson's, and includes a wide range of study units to select from. Units are chosen to reflect the specific job role of each candidate resulting in a tailor-made qualification to meet individual needs.

About the course

To achieve this qualification, candidates must gain a minimum of 45 credits by completing a variety of units. 16 credits are achieved through completion of the 3 mandatory units:

- Develop a Strategic Business Plan
